In Memory of Conrad Haneberg:

Conrad served as a fair board director for 36 dedicated years, contributing his time and leadership to numerous committees, including Outside Concessions, Senior Day, Flowers, Antiques, Main Entertainment, and Security, among many others. Throughout his years of service, Conrad made it a priority to ensure that every person who walked through the fairgrounds gates felt welcomed and included. Above all, Conrad's greatest joy was his family. During fair week, it was rare to see him without his beloved wife, Nancy, his children, or one of his grandchildren by his side, creating lasting memories together. We are deeply grateful for Conrad's years of hard work, commitment, and the positive impact he made on so many. He will be truly missed.

- 1 to 2 tablespoons 2% milk

Instructions

1. In a large bowl, dissolve yeast in warm water. Add the milk, sugar, butter, egg, salt and 2 cups flour. Beat until smooth. Stir in enough remaining flour to form a soft dough.
2. Turn onto a lightly floured surface; kneed until smooth and elastic, 6-8 minutes. Place in a greased bowl, turning once to grease top. Cover and refrigerate overnight.
3. Line 2 baking sheets with parchment; set aside. Punch down dough. Turn onto a lightly floured surface; divide in half. Roll each portion into a 14x7-in. rectangle. Spread cherries over dough to within ½ in. of edges. Combine the flour, brown sugar and pecans, sprinkle over cherries.
4. Roll up each rectangle jelly-roll style, starting with a long side; pinch seams and tuck ends under. Place each seam side down on a prepared baking sheet; pinch ends together to form a ring. With kitchen scissors, cut from outside edge two-thirds of the way toward center of ring at 1-in. intervals. Separate strips slightly and twist to allow filling to show. Cover and let rise until doubled, about 1 hour.
5. Bake at 350 degrees until golden brown, 20-25 minutes. Remove from pans to wire racks.
6. In a small bowl, combine the confectioners' sugar, vanilla and enough milk to reach desired consistency, drizzle over warm coffee cakes.
